International Day of Peace 2018: Programme

Panel Discussion on “Youth Participation in the Fight against Corruption: Ensuring the Right to Peace”.

Registration: 10:00am – 10:25am

Panel: Youth Participation in the Fight against Corruption: Ensuring the Right to Peace

Moderator: Dr Melvis M. Ndiloseh, Senior Lecturer, International Relations Institute of Cameroon (IRIC)/ C.E.O Foundation for Peace and Solidarity

| 10:45 – 11:35am | 1. Making Peace and Rights count for youths as partners to the peace-building process.
Colonel Azeez Nurudeen Kolawale, Chief, Operational Planning and Advisory Section, UNOAU. |
Mr. Zinurine Alghali, Acting Chief, policy Development Unit, Peace Support Operations Division, AU PSD. |
| 3. Overview of African Youth initiatives in the fight against corruption.
Mr. Getachew Redae, PhD Candidate, Institute for Peace and Security Studies (IPSS) |
| 4. Practical steps for Youth Engagement in Mitigating Corruption and Fostering Peace: Lessons Learned, Opportunities and Challenges.
Dr. Emmily Koiti, Youth Representative in the Joint Monitoring and Evaluation Committee (JMEC) and in the recently concluded South Sudan Peace Talks |

11:35 – 12:15pm (40 minutes) Statements from Member – States and Discussions
Art Performance:
12:15 – 12:20pm

Closing Remarks: 12:20 – 12:30pm

Group photo and coffee break: 12:30 – 01:00pm

End of Programme.

Happy Peace Day!